

18th Annual
Gonzaga Graduate Philosophy Conference

Art, Liturgy, Ecology:
Philosophy and the Meaning of the (Material) World

1-2 April, 2021, Gonzaga University

CFP: Abstracts due: 1st February

No registration Fee/ Housing and most meals provided
$250 Hutchins Prize for best paper delivered
Optional Canoe trip on Little Spokane Sunday 3rd April.

Keynote Speakers:

Neal DeRoo

Canada Research Chair, Phenomenology of Religion
Kings University, Alberta

Selected works:

- Futurity in Phenomenology
- Merleau-Ponty at the Limits of Art, Religion and Perception
- Phenomenology and Eschatology Words of Christ (ed.)
- “The Meaning of Being is...Being as Meaning”

Meredith TeGrotenhuis Shimizu
Professor of Art, Whitworth University

- “Lofty Domains: Social Climbing and Visual Dominance in Elevated Urban Views,”
- “Photographs and the Meaning of Modern Ruins”
- “Above Reality: Interpreting Skyscraper Views in Popular Culture of the 1930s.”

-
- MA, PhD students, or recent post-docs may submit proposals about any topic related to philosophy (those addressing the main conference themes are given priority, but top proposals in any area are accepted).
 - Submit abstracts of less than 400 words by 1 Feb, 2022 to Dr. Dan Bradley: bradleyd@gonzaga.edu.
 - Include: Name, Email, Phone, institutional affiliation, and year of study.
 - Conference papers will be c. 3000 words for a 40 minute session, providing a good amount of time to discuss your work.
 - For more, see <https://gonzagagrphil.com>

